Special Presentations and Other CKVS News

A quick note before we get to Roots & Blues news - believe it or not, hockey will be starting soon! In fact....this coming week! Keep an eye on our website voiceoftheshuswap.ca for more info shortly.

CKVS Stage at Roots and Blues 2017:

The festival is here and there's lots of time to get out there if you aren't already. Visit our CKVS stage (just south of the Info Tent, opposite the food vendors) and hear live interviews with several of the musicians. The interview schedule will be posted by the stage and periodically flashed on the jumbotron at the main stage.

Frazey Ford's plane was late arriving, and she was unable to make it to our stage on Friday for an interview with Mae. We are hoping to reschedule with her Saturday afternoon before she leaves. Check at our stage to see if this was possible.

Our stage schedule is listed below. Drop by!

As you wander around the festival keep an eye out for ex Morning Show guy Trevor Schaafsma, who will be calling in to the station during the day. Our newest board member and Social Media person, Alison Paull, will also be out and about taking in the sites for our Facebook page, Say hello to them and let you know you listen to the Voice!

Last week we had 2 impromptu special presentations from Acoustic Avenue as Ted Crouch spoke with Roots and Blues Artistic Director Peter north. Tune in at 9:15 Sat (Aug 19) morning as we try out some new tech to bring you Ted live on location with Peter, updating what's at the Festival!

Please note that Driving Through My Memories, with Ed Murdoch, has been rescheduled for 1:00 pm in order to bring you this R&B special presentation.

*Mae Wandinger chats with Claire Lynch.
Stay tuned for the interview on Indie Beat in the near future!*

Highlights of Regular Shows for the Upcoming Week

Note: shows later in each week have repeats the following week – refer to last week's newsletter to see what shows you can still catch early this coming week.

All Over the Map (Friday, 5 pm, repeats following Sun. 1 pm & Mon. 9 am):
Last week Bushy highlighted the Roots and Blues Festival – and a tip of the old panama hat to Elvis and some reggae from Sierra Leone, a country that just can't get a break. Next week will be an encore presentation from August 4, 2017 when he had two 10-year-old BFF's as co-hosts. Some ukulele songs and some Smokey songs are featured.

Artscape (Wednesdays, 9 am, repeats following Thurs. 8 pm & Fri. 11 am):
Now in the latter stages of August, the celebration of Canada 150 continues, with Tracey & Louise bringing you even more from the musicians of WOW, past and present.

Cold War Hot Music! (Wed at 5pm, Thurs at 9pm and Sat at Noon) Episode 08, 1952 will see RCAF Sabres deployed in Europe, the Mach Busters Club, the Stasi kidnap a civilian in Berlin, Canadian participation in the Korean War and the Brits overfly Communist Eastern Europe and Russia in falsely marked USAF jet bombers. All these events happen as top ten music continues its innocent with melodious tunes and lyrics.

Driving Through My Memories: Please tune in at 1pm on Saturday Aug 19th to hear Ed's show, with repeats at his usual times, 4pm on Tues and 10pm Thurs. Ed's show will return to the 9:00 am slot next Sat (Aug 26).

Lost Gems (Sundays at 4 pm, repeats Tuesdays at 1 pm and Thursdays at 7 pm): Early Bob Dylan is highlighted on Lost Gems this week. His transformation from rustic solo folk performer with guitar and harmonica rack standing in a lone spotlight to later rock legend laying down definitive tracks for the ages will be featured, It is a transformation that occurred in a few short years and depicted, as it progressed, the very spirit of the times, the turbulent and angry early to mid 60's. Tune in!

Love and War (Tuesdays at 4 pm, repeats Thursdays at 2 pm and Saturday at 8 pm): Alas the planned show was usurped by both Betty & JC volunteering at the R&B for the Voice. Neither had time to discover some new music for the show, so, tune in for their favourite episode to date, the weird and wooly 90s show!

Rendez-vous de la Francophonie (Wednesdays, 2:30 pm): This week's submission is from CIVL Abbotsford.

Visit us at the Roots and Blues!
