Volunteer Opportunity

We are looking for someone to take over writing copy for our Community Events Calendar. Duties would include accessing our "events@" email address for non-profit and music events submissions, writing up the facts for each new event, and sending the script to our voiceover volunteer on either Saturday night or early Sunday morning. The length of volunteer time varies depending on how many new events come in each week.

Highlights of Regular Shows for the Upcoming Week

Note: shows later in each week have repeats the following week – refer to last week's newsletter to see what shows you can still catch early this coming week.

All Over the Map (Friday, 5 pm, repeats following Sun. 1 pm & Mon. 9 am):

This week Bushy will be All Over the Map of Canada and will be considering how to celebrate Canada Day, perhaps 150 Canadian beers...happy 150th listener. You can still catch last week's episode on Sunday or Monday episode

Artscape (Wednesdays, 9 am, repeats following Thurs. 8 pm & Fri. 11 am):

Tracey and Louise are going on hiatus for the summer, busy with various Canada 150 events and other responsibilities. For this week, Tracey will be talking with Estelle Shook from Caravan Farm Theatre about the upcoming summer production and some new plans in the works for the farm theatre company. The following week, July 5, Eric and Tracey will introduce a number of WOW bands by playing some of their music. Over the summer, Tracey will have Canadian music programmed in their time slot until they return on September 6.

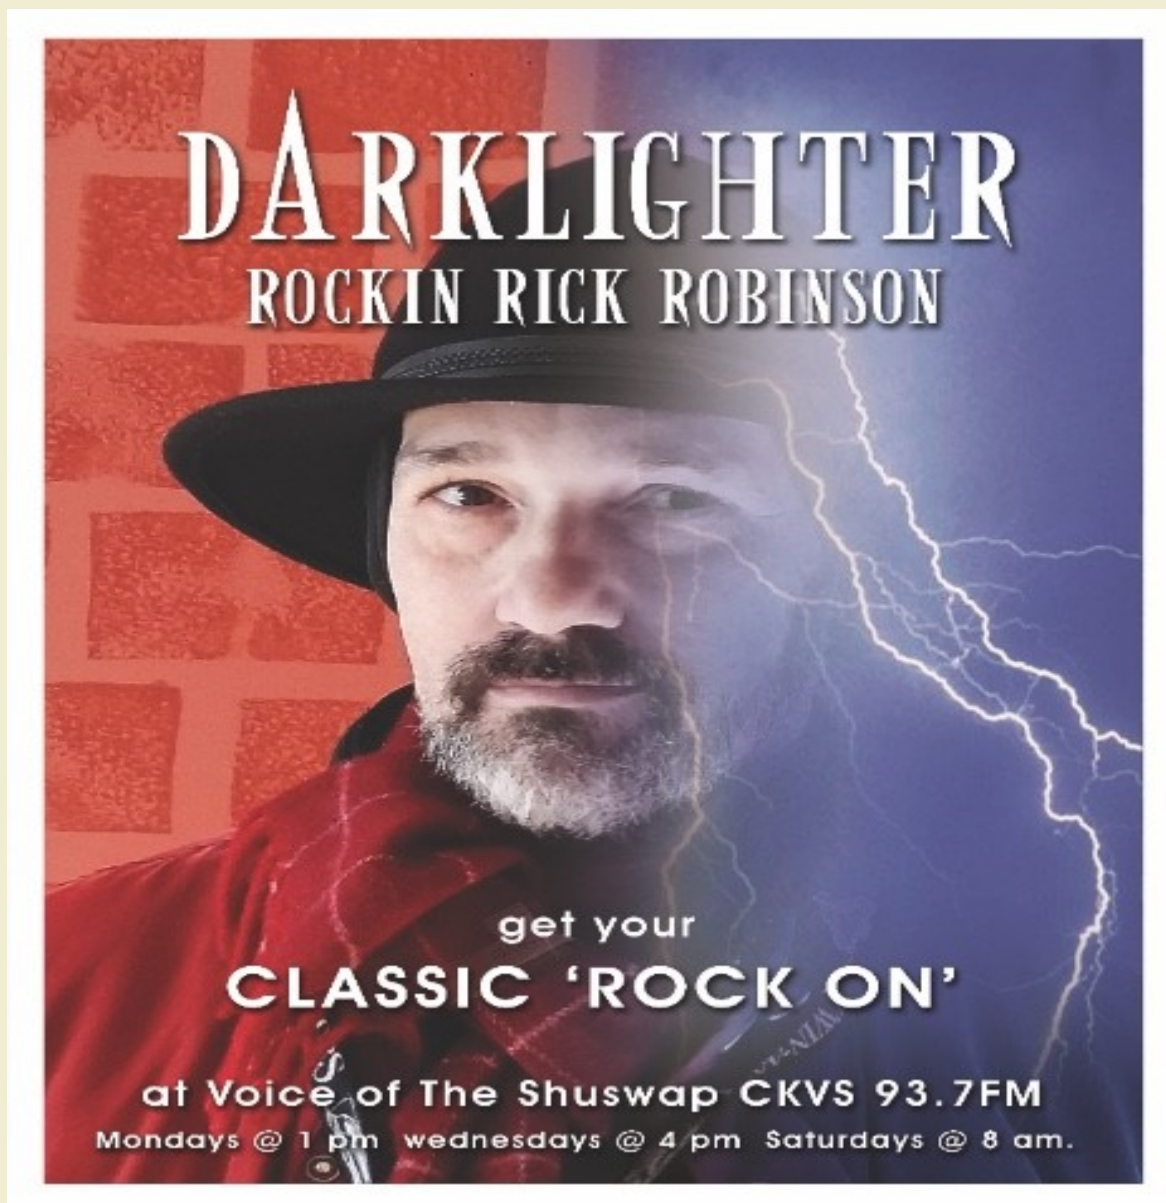

Indie Beat (Friday, 4 pm, repeats following Sun. 10 am & Tues. 9 pm): A reminder that Mae is on hiatus over the summer. This week's encore episode features Lowell Friesen.

Lost Gems (Sundays at 4 pm, repeats Tuesdays at 1 pm and Thursdays at 7 pm): Janis Joplin is featured on this week's Lost Gems. Rarities and gems will be aired, along with an informative biography of her too short life. Four of her albums will be featured. We do not hear Ms Joplin on the radio anymore, and that is just not right as she was a very important person in the history of modern music. I aim to correct the oversight.

Love and War (Tuesdays at 4 pm, repeats Thursdays at 2 pm and Saturday at 8 pm): This week Betty & JC will be showcasing (and debating) great Canadian musicians as part 1 of their 2 part Canada 150 show.

Rendez-vous de la Francophonie (Wednesdays, 2:30 pm): This week's submission, from CJSR in Alberta, is a discussion in both English and French about the experiences and challenges Francophones have in their English-speaking areas.

Writing Out Loud (First Sunday of each month at noon, repeats following Thursday at 5 pm and Saturday at 3 pm): Next Sunday, July 2nd, the Shuswap Writing Group is joined by the Blind Bay writers as they read special stories connected to Canada 150, with short musical interludes provided by Ken Firth and a few Dust Puppet members.
