

Voice of the Shuswap Broadcast Society

CKVS-FM 93.7

Voice of the Shuswap

---

P.O. Box 1052 450 Okanagan Avenue SE Salmon Arm, BC V1E 4P2
(250) 463-5026 info@voiceoftheshuswap.ca

Position Opening: Part-Time Journalist

Voice of the Shuswap is in receipt of funding by the Community Radio Fund of Canada and the Government of Canada's Local Journalism Initiative, and has openings for two part time journalists.

The successful candidates will report on local politics, arts and culture, lifestyle, business, and events of importance within our broadcast region. All news content will be produced for airing on CKVS-FM 93.7

We're looking for creative, motivated, organized, professional reporters with a passion for community with:

- Excellent written and communication skills
- The ability to work both independently and as part of a team to present local news and stories
- Strong interviewing skills
- Curiosity about people and local communities
- Comfort working on a deadline
- Journalism or communications education, or experience
- Previous writing or reporting experience preferred
- Audio production skills both in field and studio
- An understanding of Canadian journalistic ethics, defamation, copyright, and broadcasting regulations and laws.
- A valid driver's license and access to a vehicle

Wage: $35 per hour (non negotiable)

Term: 15-20 hours per week.

Length: 44-48 weeks between April 1, 2026 through March 31, 2027. Number of weeks dependant on current funding.

This project is funded by the Community Radio Fund of Canada and the Government of Canada's Local Journalism Initiative. Renewal of term will depend on available funding.

Please send your resume, cover letter, and any links to writing samples or published work, to station@voiceoftheshuswap.ca

For further questions, contact Jeanette at station@voiceoftheshuswap.ca